

Containerisation with Docker exercise

In this exercise we will create a Docker container for an example R project. The project is the same that is created in the first workflow exercise, however to save time or in case you haven't completed this exercise we will start with the finished output from it.

Step 1: Download the resources

Download resources for exercise